John Wesley Hardin

John Wesley Hardin is considered an American Old West outlaw, gunfighter and controversial folk hero. He killed his first man at the age of 15. By the age of 17 he had killed a dozen men. As a young man he was known to carry both an 1851 Navy and an 1860 Army. Later he was known to carry an ivory-gripped, nickel-plated Smith & Wesson No. 3 First Model Russian top-break. Similar to Wild Bill Hitchcock's death, Hardin was killed by a man named John Selman who came up behind him and shot him in the head. Unlike Wild Bill, Selman then placed three more rounds in Hardin as he laid on the floor.
